

Online Analytical Processing (OLAP)

A category of software tools that provides analysis of summarised data stored in a multidimensional database.

OLAP tools enable users to analyse different dimensions of the summarised multidimensional data.